- To allow you to receive the best experience using this website; to track activity on our website; to better understand the effectiveness of our promotional campaigns; to determine whether you came to our site from a banner ad or an Affiliate website; to deliver information specific to your interests; and
- To improve the running of this website, to improve the customer experience and the operation of our business.

COOKIES & INTERNET TECHNOLOGY

We use Internet technologies like cookies and web beacons for a variety of purposes, including, but not limited to, those identified below:

- To assist us in providing services to you;
- To allow you to move between web pages during your visit without having to re-enter your password;
- To temporarily track activity on our website;
- To determine whether you came to our site from a banner ad or an Affiliate website;
- To deliver information specific to your interests on additional websites; and
- To identify you when you visit the website, to personalize the content of the website for you and to assist you in carrying out transactions and accessing account information.

A “cookie” is a text file placed on your computer’s hard drive by a website. Your Web browser uses it to guide you to services or information based on your interest. “Web beacons” are transparent electronic images placed in the Web code that collect non-personal data while visiting a website. You can erase or block cookies from your computer or mobile device or receive a warning before a cookie is stored.

For information on how to configure your browser refer to the help menu in your internet browser. Note that switching off or “opting out” of cookies will mean that you may not be able to use certain features of the website. Find out more about the use of cookies and how to switch off cookies on http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/HTTP_cookie.

INFORMATION WE DISCLOSE

We may disclose Information to the following:

- Western Union group companies and Affiliates;
- Companies which help us to deliver products and services to you such as banks, credit card companies and credit reference agencies;
- Domestic and foreign governments, our Affiliates or service providers in order to comply with legal, regulatory, security and transaction processing requirements applicable to us, including but not limited to anti-money laundering laws;
- To organisations which help us to process transactions, validate customer information and help us to prevent debt, fraud, theft or loss;
- As permitted or required by any applicable laws and regulations.

Western Union Business Solutions and our Affiliates worldwide may disclose your Information, including but not limited to, your name, customer ID number, address, transaction patterns, and bank account information (i) if we are required to do so by domestic or foreign law or legal process or (ii) to law enforcement authorities or other government officials (including those in this country, the United States, or elsewhere) for purposes of detecting, investigating, prosecuting, and preventing crimes, including money laundering and related criminal activity, and the recipients may further disclose the Information for these and other related purposes.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY

We endeavor to maintain physical, technical and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable government laws and regulations to guard your Information. We also endeavor to restrict Information access to our employees, agents and representatives who need to know it. Despite our efforts, third parties may unlawfully intercept or access transmissions sent to us or may wrongly instruct you to disclose Information to them while posing as Western Union Business Solutions. Always use caution and good judgment when using Internet or mobile technologies.
